Austro-Hungarian Refugee's Testimony Against Dreyfus - Labori Said He Would Ask For Inquiry to a Foreign Power- templicity of General Staff.

in the form of a letter to the president of the courtmartial, Colonel Jonaust, he claimed that on three distinct occasions, twice in France and once at Geneva, he told by a high placed foreign officer that Drevfus had communicated treasonable documents to a foreign power. In the third instance Cernuschi said the officer showed him documents emanating from Dreyfus, and that this officer left France hurriedly two days prior to the arrest of Captain Dreyfus. The al-lusion was evidently to Colonel Schwartzsoppen, the military attache of the German embassy in Paris in 1894, whose movements were coincident with these described as the movements of the officer of Cernuschi's deposition.

M. Labori asked to have him put on oath at today's session behind closed doors. This was in order that he might be panished, if guilty of lying.

M. Labori announced his intention, in view of the step taken by the prosecution in calling foreign evidence, to ask that inquiry should be made through the regular diplomatic channels as to whether the documents mentioned in the bordereau were actually communicated and if so by whom. This involves an application to the German government, which the courtmartial is

IMPORTANCE OF OHIO CONTEST.

The Senator Considers It Will Be as Important Test as to Expansion-Mc-Lean's Ambition to Be Vice President and United States Senator, Involved.

LONDON, Sept. 5 .- Rejuvenated by a course of treatment at German baths and a summer visit to Europe, United States Senator Mark Hanna returned to London for a few days' rest previous to sailing for the United States on board the American line steamer St. Louis on Saturday. Senator Hanna is hurrying to Ohio to participate in the opening of the Republican campaign at Akron.

From a conversation with Senator Hanna the correspondent gathered that the zest with which the senator is look-ing forward to the conflict in Ohio is due to the fact that he recognizes that the coming campaign will only furnish country's endorsement of the national administration but that behind the candidacy of Mr. John R. McLean for the governorship of Ohio there is an as-piration for the second place on the Democratic presidential ticket with Mr. Bryan, and, failing of election, a future contest for the United States senator-ship from Ohio. In such a competi-Mr. Hanna is anxious to participate, because it means the opening of the national campaign of 1900

I do not concede that the congressional election in the late Representative Bland's listrict in Missouri last week affords any test of American sentiment in relation to national issues, for the election of a Democrat was a foregone conclusion, and the fact that the Democrats are calling it a test case gives ground for the suspicion that they made the majority to suit themselves. In Ohio, however, we have an opportunity to make an open fight; and I am anxious to assist all in my power in bringing the issue to a successful conclusion. The Republican party nationally and locally has no cause to fear the combat on the issues as now presented.

Mr. McLean has undoubtedly loaded his double-barrelled fowling piece; and that word has a peculiar Ohio meaning, for in this contest he is looking both to the vice presidency and the United States senaa test case gives ground for the suspicio

For instance, the appearance in line of Post No. 1, from Rockford, Ills., the oldest Grand Army post in the country, or-ganized in 1866. It occupied the position of honor in the very forefront of the line, led by its commander, Thomas G. Lawler, who has been consecutively chosen 32 : an s as its commander. The friends of each of the candidates claim that their favorite is already a winner. A careful canvass among the different departments, however, indicates that Colonel Shaw has a little the better of the contest. That gentleman in an interview said that he was absolutely sure of victory, and said that the fight was all over. Neither Colonel Johnson nor Comrade Rassieur would speak directly about the contest, but their lieutenants expressed the greatest confidence in the outcome of the struggle. Each of the candidates has a head-quarters in full operation and hanging out banners to help along their campaigns. THE RED SHIRTS.

Convicts Who Wear Them In the Penitentiaries of California. There are men in the peniteutiaries

California who are favored with red shirts, but they are not made par ticularly happy thereby. When a convict has once worn the crimson shirt, he hopes as ardently as a convict can hope for anything that the warden will never make him wear it again. It means that he has tried to escape and failed. But that is not all. Henceforth he is a degraded man in prison circles His time credits are gone. Solitary confinement, dungeons and bread and water may be his portion. He is watched, suspected by the officers, pointed out and "explained" to visitors and newcomers. Among the 700 convicts in the jute mill his rea back may be distinguished at a glance. If he be away from there a moment, the guards know it. Then the prison bell rings, the officers assemble, bloodhounds are unchained, and the hunt begins.

Some of the red shirters at San Quentin are among the most daring fellows that ever scaled a prison wall and every man of them has run the gantlet of guard and Gatling gun. Anvbody in stripes who breaks for liberty is liable to be riddled with lead within 60 seconds. The convicts know this, but they also know that beyond the gray stone walls there are green hills and deep ravines and-possibly-freedom. The man who is sentenced to die on a prison cot is willing to stake his life for liberty. His days and nights are spent preparing for the game. He Adjourned the Case to Find Out Where He Was At. A justice of the peace in one of the west end boroughs issued a warrant for the arrest of a west end woman for slander. Sonire S. J. White happened to be present at the hearing. The prosecutor testified that the defendant had called her an "old virago" and that she had added, "I don't know what that means, but whatever it is that's what you are." The witness admitted that she did not know what the meaning of the word was, either, but she knew it had no good meaning or the other

DOUBLE DEALING A Resolution

To improve Wolf street, from Woos ter avenue to Thornton street.

AN AKRON CASE THAT WAS THE OPPOSITE.

Double dealing, like so many other expressions in the Anglo Saxon language, has different meanings. The text or heading does not refer to the deceitful, hypocritical specimens of manhood who curry favor for their own ends and keep a community in a ferment by retailing scraps of confidences. This time 'tis the double dealing of the little conqueror, Doan's Kidney Pills—to be more correct, the double healing. One member of a family tests them. Like disease the infection spreads, another uses them—an acquaintance or a friend maybe. Result the same—a cure. Read the statement that follows, made by Mr. A. W. Miller, of 152 South Howard street, who says: "I suffered from a dull aching in my loins, sluggish kidneys, aching in the back of my head and a feeling of languor which unnerved me. On attempting
